OTHER COSTS & CONSIDERATIONS

RATES & SALES TAX

Annual rate increases occur every September. Utah State Sales Tax in Taylorsville City is 7.45%. Taxable items are ticket sales and equipment rental. Rates are subject to change at any time.

INSURANCE

All Contractors are required to maintain Commercial General Liability insurance with an insurance company rated A- or better by A.M. Best Company in the minimum amount of $1,000,000.00 per occurrence with a $3,000,000.00 general policy aggregate and must provide a Certificate of Insurance showing Salt Lake County as an additional insured. Contractors that will be serving alcohol must also maintain full Liquor Liability insurance in the amount of $1,000,000.00 and must provide evidence of an “additional insured endorsement” on the policy that specifically lists Salt Lake County as an additional insured. If the event includes pyrotechnics, fire effects, and flame displays, the general liability policy must not have an exclusion for pyrotechnics, fire effects, or flame displays, and coverage must include at least $1,000,000.00 in damage to rented premises. Arts & Culture may require additional limits depending on the specific use of the facility.

Insurance is not required if renting the Centennial Room or North Studio as a studio/rehearsal space.

CATERING

Contractor is responsible for arranging catering services if necessary. Arts & Culture does not have an exclusive caterer. If any food or beverage is provided to the public by Contractor these items must be provided by a licensed caterer and/or prepared in a commercial kitchen in accordance with Salt Lake County Health Department regulations. A Temporary Food Permit may be required. Please visit saltlakecounty.gov/health/food-protection/permits/temporary/ for additional information. All food service must be approved by and coordinated with Salt Lake County Arts & Culture.

ALCOHOL

If Contractor wishes to sell alcohol in conjunction with an event, a Single Event Permit may be required and can be obtained through Utah Department of Alcoholic Beverage Services. Please visit abs.utah.gov for additional information. It is Contractor’s responsibility to follow state law regarding the sale and service of alcoholic beverages. Any service of alcohol must not jeopardize the existing liquor permit held by the contracted concessionaire.

MERCHANDISE SALES & MERCHANDISE FEES

A signed merchandise agreement is required between Salt Lake County Arts & Culture and Contractor to sell merchandise. Salt Lake County Arts & Culture does not provide sellers, starting cash, or credit card processing equipment. Recorded Media sales (including posters, programs, music CD and video recordings) split is 10% to Salt Lake County Arts & Culture and 90% to Contractor. Novelties sales split is 20% to Salt Lake County Arts & Culture and 80% to Contractor.

ADVERTISING

Direct show advertising is the responsibility of Contractor. Salt Lake County Arts & Culture offers support advertising online through our website, newsletter, and social media channels. A Style Guide can be provided by your Event Manager upon request.

Support advertising is not available if renting the Centennial Room or North Studio as a studio/rehearsal space.

SECURITY

Salt Lake County Arts & Culture does not provide personnel for event safety or security services. If Contractor will be enacting or enforcing a safety and security plan that requires security personnel, Contractor is responsible to hire these services through a qualified vendor.
